

Valeria Rasnake

TO THE MOST HIGH AND MIGHTY PRINCE,

JAMES,

BY THE GRACE OF GOD,

KING OF GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, AND IRELAND,

DEFENDER OF THE FAITH, &c.

The Translators of the Bible wish Grace, Mercy, and Peace, through JESUS CHRIST our Lord.

Great and manifold were the blessings, most dread Sovereign, which Almighty God, Father of all mercies, bestowed upon us the people of England, when first he sent Your Majesty's Royal Person to rule and reign over us. For whereas it was the expectation of many, who wished not well unto our Sion, that, upon the setting of that bright Occidental Queen Elizabeth, of most happy memory, some thick and palpable clouds of darkness should so have overshadowed this land, that men should have been in doubt which way were to walk, and that it should hardly be known who was to direct the unsettled people; the appearance of Your Majesty, as of the Sun in his strength, instantly dispelled the supposed and surmised mists, and gave unto all that were well affected exceeding cause of comfort; especially when we beheld the Government established in Your Highness, Your hopeful Seed, by an undoubted Title; and this also accompanied with peace and tranquillity at home and abroad.

But among all our joys, there was no one that more filled our hearts than the blessed continuance of the preaching of God's sacred Word among us, which is that inestimable treasure which excelleth all the riches of the earth; because the fruit thereof extendeth not only to the time spent in this transitory world, but directeth and disposeth men unto that eternal happiness which is above in heaven. When not to suffer this to fall to the ground, but rather to take it up, and to continue that state wherein the famous Predecessor of Your Highness did leave it; nay, to go forward with the confidence and resolution of a man, in maintaining the truth of Christ, propagating it far and near, is that which hath so bound and firmly knit the hearts of Your Majesty's loyal and religious people unto You, that our very hearts are precious unto them: their eye doth behold You with comfort, and they bless You in their hearts. That sanctified Person, who, under God, is the immediate author of their true happiness, thus their contentment doth not diminish or decay, but every day increaseth and taketh strength, when they observe that the zeal of Your Majesty toward the house of God doth slack or go backward, but is more and more kindled, manifesting itself abroad in the best parts of Christendom, by writing in defence of the truth, (which hath given such a wound unto that Man of Sin as will not be healed,) and every day at home, by religious and edifying discourse, by frequenting the house of God, by hearing the Word preached, by visiting the teachers thereof, by caring for the Church, as for their own, and as for their loving father.

There are infinite reasons, that might move Your Majesty to your right Christian care in your Majesty; but none is more forcible to declare the necessity of this work, which now, with all humility, we present unto Your Majesty. For when Your Highness had occasion for deep judgment, and how convenient it was, that out of the Original sacred Tongues, together with comparing of the labours, both in our own and other foreign languages, of many worthy men who went before us, there should be one more exact translation of the Holy Scriptures into the English tongue. Your Majesty did never desist to urge and to excite those to whom we commend, that the Work might be hastened, and that the business might be done in a decent manner; as a matter of such importance might justly require.

Mettie B. Gaddis Dies Thursday; Funeral Sunday

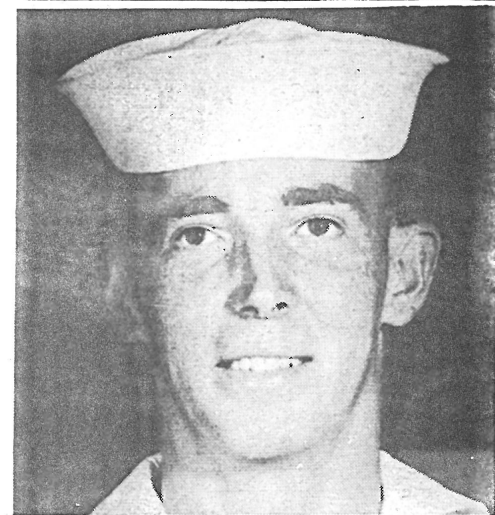

SHERIDAN — Mettie B. Gaddis, 81, died Thursday evening in Riverview Hospital.

The deceased was born in Marion County, daughter of David and Sarah Jane Shull Reed and she had lived most of her life in Boone County. She was married in 1904 to Amos Gaddis. After his death in 1946, she moved to Sheridan to live with her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Wallace, who survives.

Also surviving are five grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren and one brother, Frank Reed, Indianapolis.

Services will be Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Hinshaw Funeral Home, Sheridan. Rev. William Knight, pastor of the Sheridan Christian Church to which the deceased belonged, will officiate and interment will occur in Zionville Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Saturday.

Home From Viet Nam

Richard D. Rasnake, USN, son of Mrs. Valeria A. Rasnake, of Westfield, is now on a month's furlough and is spending the time with his mother and friends in and around the Washington Township community.

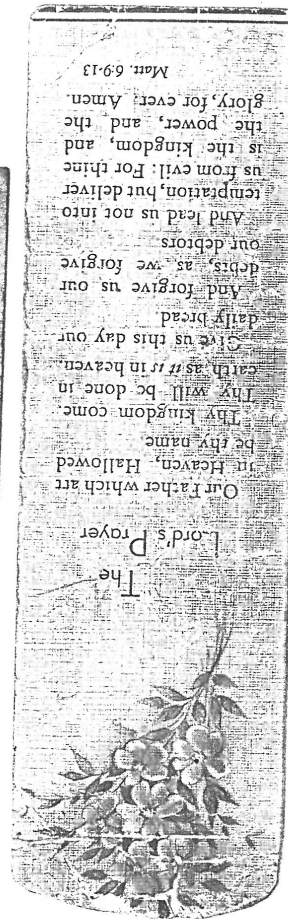

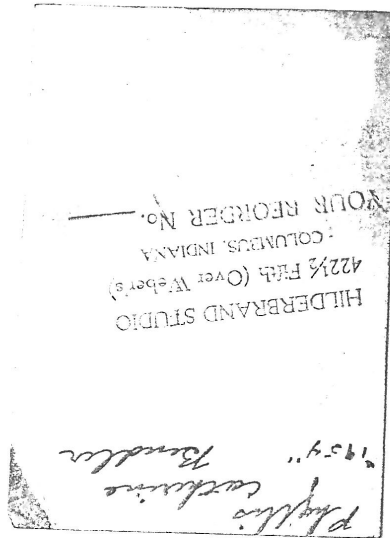

Rasnake is an Interior Communications Electrician Second Class. He returned recently to San Diego, California aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ticonderoga after an eight-months deployment to the Gulf of Tonkin.

Here are the now words to sing when birthday money is given:

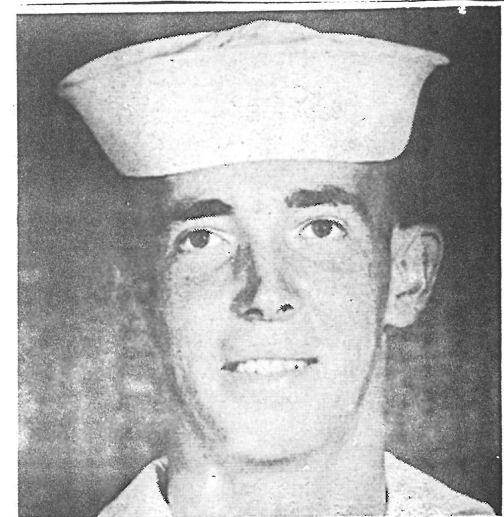

Happy Birthday to you,
And to Jesus be true.
May God's richest blessings
Now rest upon you.
